American Red Cross

This is an interactive class designed by the Red Cross to train young people to care for children. This class will provide youth who are planning to babysit with the knowledge and skills necessary to safely and responsibly give care for children and infants. This training will help participants to develop leadership skills, learn how to develop a babysitting business, keep themselves and others safe and help children behave and learn about basic child care and basic first aid. All participants will receive a certification card upon completing the course. Participants should bring a sack lunch. Space is limited, so register early.

Pre-registration is required.
